

OPEN SOURCE & OFF THE SHELF

A backgarden shed converted into a Tiki Bar which performs effects when you order drinks - highly influenced by Traders Sams at Disneyland/Disneyworld. What's better, it's all built using off the shelf components and open source code.

SEE THE LATEST COCKTAILS

Ah, so you want to know the tale of the headless horseman? Well it was a thundery October night, not unlike this very one here. What's that (horse grunt)
Oh no, here's here ...
Hope you all have your head, this poor lass never made it
